"Master of Surrender" is the first in a new series of books by Karin Tabke. It is the story of Sir Rohan and Isabel and the "band of brothers" called the Blood Sword starting off in prison in Saracen held lands and continuing on in England. I found this really enjoyable with strong characters.

Driven by his dislike of the German people, the president, with encouragement from his Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., insisted on a strategy that settled for nothing less than unconditional surrender.
