Rich Stapleton and Rosa Park, Cereal 's founders, travel extensively for the magazine and were inspired to create a series of city guides that highlighted their favorite places to visit. Now, after building a loyal readership that counts on their unique, considered advice, they are relaunching the books with a fresh design and new content. Rich and Rosa have personally visited hundreds of venues in Paris, distilling their preferred locales down to their firm favorites. Favoured by artists, galleries, companies and cities, it engages viewers' attention with bewilderment, transporting them back to a time when everything else was physically much bigger than us. Profiling 40 artists actively involved in this international vein, OVERSIZE investigates how size and scale deepen memories in the most striking ways."--Back cover.

A world without plants is a world without life, both literally and figuratively. Besides forming the very basis of human survival on Earth, they are also an important source of creative inspiration, ingenuity, and expression. From scientific explorers like Sir Joseph Banks who travelled across the globe in search of never-seen before species to impressionist painters like É douard Manet who sought to capture the subtle beauty of everyday objects, many artists and illustrators have used flora as a powerful means to convey the essence of our very existence. Botanical Inspiration is a timeless collection of artwork and illustrations that feature flora and its many facets through a variety of visual concepts, styles, and techniques. It speaks to lovers of both nature and creativity as a universal language in itself, thoughtfully interpreted by some of today's most intriguing and interesting talents.
