You will need to decide what types of activities are safe for the children in your care. Appropriate and reasonable caution should be used when providing art and sensory experiences for children. Infants require special caution, only use non-toxic materials, and do not allow infants to put things in their mouths that are a choking hazard.

Infant Lesson Plans. Many caregivers believe that the daily care of an infant, such as diapering and feeding, is all there is to day care or preschool. While these daily interactions are certainly important, they are not the only things. Infants should be actively involved in sensory play, fine and gross motor activities, and outdoor play each day.
